

Chorus

*I got distracted and burned my popcorn ~ again
Seems like once a month it happens ~ a pain
The smoke in the kitchen reminds me endlessly
I try to resolve to I stand and watch patiently*

One week passes all is well
Second week finally – no smell
Third week's got me feeling carefree
You know what happens, it's pretty ugly

Chorus

I get distracted and burn my popcorn again. etc

It's not only popcorn sometimes it's real food
When I burn dinner I don't feel good
Once again I decide to act more carefully
But sometimes a song interrupts ~ it's folly
(and I get distracted and burn my popcorn again)

I bought a timer to help me
It's ring might help me pay attention
But the sound of my singing was louder than the ringing distracted and didn't save me anything oh I got distracted and burned the popcorn again

Now I stand at the stove to watch the water boil
It's kind of boring – seems a lot of trouble
But if I turn away you know what'll happen
Going without breakfast gets me distracted

Chorus
