

An Angel from heaven or hell

He entered the room everything stopped
No one knew why but no one talked
He had wings jutting from his ears
Everyone noticed, all felt their fears

*An image from nightmares/ Read in a book
No one thought real/ Once seen it shook
The foundations of what/ Reality could be
An angel from heaven or hell*

He walked towards my lady/ I moved between them
Suddenly found myself/ far from either
Against a wall many bones broken/
Barely breathing said NO! /Not that it mattered
He touched her face and they disappeared

Chorus or solo

No longer a couple/ crumpled on the floor
She's gone away/ I can't take any more
My body in pain/ no longer my mind can move the bones too broken unkind.

Chorus- out
