

It's possible

1 } What if today is more than today
The sun won't shine hiding away
Yet life seems bright unknown why
I'm filled with laughter will not cry

2 } No reasons to be bored or glum
Even though there's no sun
Everyday is not the same
Curious means I'm always game

3 } There's wind and breeze/ leaves blown from trees
Carpet the ground colorfully
Water streams down the street/
Clearing the road of most debris

1 } Birds swoop low not many calls
Clouds race by, tiny squalls
Treetops bend taking bows
Nature dances in pleasure

2 } We want to understand what's seen
Want to know what life means
Rabbits, squirrels, coyotes too
Just a woodland not a zoo

3 } Take a walk breathe the scent/ Notice as limbs unbend
The wind has calmed a sort of peace take a moment to breathe with ease

1 } Does it seem strange that life is good
Not for everyone in the world
Concern for those who live in pain
Our hearts soar to help again.
