

I want to see you happy/ A smile on your face
But it's been too long/ I've forgotten what it looks like
I don't know what's wrong, I know something is
You say nothing, which tells me more than I want to know

Chorus;

Show me the door, I'll walk away ~ crying
I can't question what you feel I'm ~ trying
To follow your lead, It's leading me away ~ from you
Stumbling down the 3rd circle of hell ~
 what else is there to do?

I thought as we danced/ our bodies moved as one
We seemed to agree/ about anything that mattered
We got to your car/ I admired the paint job
You opened you side – got in
 Started the car and drove away.

Chorus;

You showed me the door, I walked away ~ crying
I can't question what you feel I'm ~ trying
To follow your lead, It lead me away ~ from you
Stumbling down the 3rd circle of hell ~
 what else is there to do?

Never again can I know what's going on/
Never again can I know anything/
It's hot down here no one listens/
I cry but my tears evaporate.

Following your lead, It leads me away ~ from you
Stumbling down the 3rd circle of hell ~
 what else is there to do?
