Anytime

Anytime I want to see you, Anytime I do
Anytime you refuse me/ I'll refuse you too
Anytime we dance together/ time seems to stop
Anytime you're not here my heart's about to pop.

I don't know what to do when you're not here with me
I stand around starrng out don't know what I see
My eyes are blind the pain severe my heart won't beat
I know you don't believe me but I'm bleeding could you see.

I feel like a failure now that you've gone away
I'm not lost never lonely no matter what they say
You're gone I don't really know where it is you are
You might be right next door but that door's not ajar

Anytime I want to see you/ I just hope I do
You have decided I'm not for you/ wish it weren't true
I want to dance again holding you somehow
But you're no longer with me/ a truth I must allow

This is the dustbin of my history in love
I fall sometimes hard, it never seems enough
And my room is barren of anything of yours
Losing you is killing me since you closed that door
