

Shards of glass

The broken mirror at my feet	Am
The shards reflect galaxies	F
You travel towards distant stars	C
Then return from so far ~ away	Em

We did not part in haste
Did not wait until too late
It was love to say goodbye
You left never saw me cry

Too earthbound, could not go along
Your reach was farther out beyond
And now you're on your way
I could not go, here I stay

Wonder when you return
If we'll be the same
If anything of our love?
Will shards of it remain?

Both wished for grand adventures
While we're far apart
Accept what happens to us
Might affect our hearts

You touched me where I can't forget
I do not wait, though I do
The broken glass at my feet
Reflect my love for you.
