

Kill me Please

If I ask you to kill me/ Because life is too hard to endure
Can you promise to do it / Is your love that pure?

Can you walk upon the waters/ shallow sands soft and murky
Will you promise to be true/ When I'm gone what will you do?

If I say no flowers / no casket burial mound can you agree to this/ or will your pain unbound?

I wish not to disbelieve you /Don't want to doubt your love
But if my desire to disappear /are no honored this is not love!

Will be you able to do this? / What I ask, no easy task
I will not live forever / Though our love is vast
Do what I ask of you /it is all of you I ask.

You will love another/ there are so many more
Lovely than I was/ Lovelier than I am
You will see their beauty/ I ask you must accept
Move towards them graciously
As I know you can.
